annuity payable under this Regn may prefer such claim to the Jahgirdar of Yelandur for the time being, who shall enquire into such claim and pass his decision thereon in accordance with this Regn. From any such decision passed by the Jahgirdar of Yelandur an appeal shall lie to the Govt of Mysore, whose orders upon such appeal shall be final." Therefore the Govt cannot take into consideration this petition at this ~~state~~ stage. The petitioner should first get a decision from the Jahgirdar after it is settled who the rightful Jahgirdar is, and then if there is not satisfied with his decision appeal to Govt on such decision.
The petitioner may perhaps be informed accordingly.

ABSTRACT

Petitioner states as follows:-

That the late Mr Gaya Narasinga Rao, a descendant of Dewan Purnaiya, ~~who belonged to the 2nd branch~~ as the adopted son of Anantaramappa was getting an annuity of Rs 1200 a year from the revenues of the Jahgir

That Mr Gaya Narasinga Rao ~~died about 30 or 4 years back leaving no~~ had only two daughters and no sons. The first daughter Narasamma is now living and has sons and daughters. The second daughter Bhagirathamma died leaving the petitioner as the her only daughter. The petitioner has a son living. The petitioner further states that on the death of Jaya Narasinga Rao some 30 or 40 years back, the Narasamma his first daughter got the whole of the annuity. That the petitioner then applied to the late Jahgirdar Sir P. N. Krishnamurthy to get her a half share in the annuity that was being paid to Mr Jaya Narasinga Rao as her mother if alive would have been entitled to such a share. Sir P. N. Krishnamurthy then took evidence in the matter and replied that for the present he has ordered that only half the annuity should be paid to Narasamma and that orders about the other half would ~~shortly~~ be passed after disposing of her claim. Before the claim could be disposed of Sir P. N. Krishnamurthy died. The petitioner now prays that as the Jahgirdarship is itself in dispute now Government may take up her claim case and pass orders that half the annuity that was being
